Current positions available;

Optometrists:

We have current vacancies for optometrist in Sydney and Melbourne. Paris Miki has various arrangements with optometrists; you can be employed as a full time staff member, as a licensee of the testing area of a store, so you are your own boss! Or as a locum.

We are happy to discuss which ever would best suit you.

Optical Dispensers:

Current positions available in Sydney, Melbourne, and Canberra, as a dispenser you are responsibly for the professional service, dispensing and product quality. A desire to grow to store management would be preferred but not essential. A flair fashion would be an advantage as well as an understanding of lens technology. We will provide training in all new aspects of lens development

Optical Sales Staff:

Optical retail experience is not required, but some retail exposure would be preferred.

You would need to be a person who likes to work with people, has a desire to provide people with the best solutions for their needs and be comfortable offering fashion advice,

You should be able to work well with others, but be a self motivator and trust your own initiatives.

Training will be provided to make you the best you can be.
